Andy is an established Record Producer, Remixer, Keyboard Player and Composer based in West London. He has numerous production, writing and performance credits in the R&B, Urban, Rock, Dance and Pop genres amongst others. These include credits for work with artists such as Lemar, Beverly Knight, Ashanti, Alexander O'Neil, Kool and the Gang, Atomic Kitten and Eternal and over 14 Top-Ten Hits.

He has over 25 years of music industry experience. During the early part of his career Andy quickly became one of the UK's most accomplished and sought after session keyboard players. His proficiency with synthesizers and keyboards shines through in his productions and his writing. Andy also plays guitar.

Andy has developed an approach to music production that retains the true original artistic vision of a client/artist whilst maintaining focus and direction. These qualities are invaluable to anybody looking to realise the potential of talent within the contemporary music industry.

He now produces from his own Greystoke Studios in West London. The studio boasts a comfortable and creative yet professional atmosphere as well as one of the largest collections of working vintage keyboards and synthesizers in the UK.

Some Notable Past Achievements Include:

Commercial Music Productions:

Writing and Production credits for two tracks on Lemar's double platinum "Time To Grow" album.

Co-producer on Atomic Kitten's "Ladies Night" which went top-ten for three weeks over Christmas 2003 in the UK singles charts.
